You do not require a visa label in your passport

The details above reflect the electronic record of your visa held by Immigration New Zealand (INZ). Do not alter this letter. For information about eVisas go to immigration.govt.nz/evisas. Please check that your visa details match your passport before you travel and contact us immediately if there are any errors.

If you get a new passport while this visa is still valid, you must request INZ to update your visa details so that they match your new passport. INZ's website has information on how to do this: immigration.govt.nz/transfervisa

You can verify the details of your visa online using the Visa Verification Service: www.immigration.govt.nz/about-us/our-online-systems/visa-verification-service

New Zealand's COVID-19 requirements

If you plan to travel to or from New Zealand, please check the current COVID-19 requirements. These requirements can change so we recommend referring to these often when planning travel covid19.govt.nz/international-travel

Automated systems

Some aspects of your application have been processed using automated systems in accordance with section 28 of the Immigration Act 2009. For more information about INZ's use of automated systems go to www.immigration.govt.nz/about-us/site-information/terms-of-use

You must not remain in New Zealand after your visa expires

You must hold a valid visa at all times while you are in New Zealand. If you do not hold a valid visa, you will be in New Zealand unlawfully and you will be liable for deportation. If you do not leave voluntarily before you are served with a deportation order you will face a prohibition period preventing your return to New Zealand in the future.
